SECTION 6 – OTHER BUSINESS

The following Agenda Items have been submitted by Judith Balfour

6.1 Selling/Advertising for sale animals on the CSCSA Facebook Page or Website

Rationale:

Not to be used for advertising of puppies/adults for sale or adoption, Facebook does not allow advertising of animals for sale so to do so contravenes FB rules. Any post advertising animals for sale/adoption/give away will be removed A list of breeders should be maintained on the website and Facebook page and all enquiries should be directed to this list and Dogs SA. The Cocker Spaniel Club of SA should not be seen as recommending any particular breeder. Paid adds can be accepted for the club magazine. The object of the Cocker Spaniel Club of SA is to promote the breed not to promote breeders

6.2 Selling products of Face book or website

Rationale:

Not to be used for advertising. We are happy for people to share posts about useful or interesting products they come across, but any posts advertising goods for sale will be removed. Paid adds can be accepted for the club magazine

6.3 NCSC (Aust) constitution review

Update: A working committee has been formed to review the current constitution of the National Cocker Spaniel Council (Australia) and forward recommendations to each club for feedback and voting to confirm acceptance. The first meeting was held Monday 14th October 2024. Note: Judith Balfour was appointed the CSCSA Inc representative on this NCSC Review Working Party

6.4 CSC of SA constitution review

A review of the current Constitution should be untaken by the 2024/2025 committee with the requirement to include electronic methods of voting/meeting etc

6.5 Code of Ethics review

A review of the current Code of Ethics should be untaken by the 2024/2025 committee.
